Climate change and energy management

While we are confident in our current climate strategy, we understand that we must continue to anticipate the possible impacts of climate change on our activity, the possible new regulations and demands from our stakeholders, and prepare for future compliance challenges.

OBJECTIVES

- 1. Manage our energy consumption by promoting energy conservation and reduction of greenhouse gases (GHG).
- 2. Address the current and potential demands of our stakeholders related to GHG emissions and the possible impacts of climate change on our operations.

Circular economy and zero waste

One of our main challenges is to increase the awareness and participation of our visitors for an adequate segregation at source of waste.

OBJECTIVES

- 1. Minimize the amount of waste generated, and promote proper segregation at source through environmental awareness of our employees and guests.
- 2. Reduce the use of single-use plastics.
- 3. Reduce food waste in catering activities.
- 4. Minimize the amount of waste sent directly to landfill.

OBJECTIVES

- 1. Minimize the use of water.
- 2. Increase the use of non fresh water, with special focus on parks located in areas classified as high or very high water-stressed areas.

Education and awareness

We are committed to publicize environmental challenges, educate the public on how to alleviate the deterioration of nature, disseminate the knowledge of experts and veterinarians on threatened species, and raise awareness about the importance of actively contributing to protect biodiversity.

OBJECTIVES

- 1. Promote education.
- 2. Educate the public on segregating and reducing waste generation.
- 3. Raise awareness about the role of zoos in conservation.

Our zoos and aquariums are hubs for the conservation of biodiversity. The visit to our zoos raises awareness about the challenges faced by nature and foster environmentally friendly attitudes in our guests.

During their visit, our guests enjoy a direct approach to the animals, can attend educational talks and have access to a wealth of information about each species. Additionally, the parks organize guided tours, exhibitions, lectures, workshops and children's camps to foster awareness around those topics.

Conservation of biodiversity and animal welfare

We work to guarantee the future of biodiversity, both in the wild, with programs for endangered species, and in the zoos, through education, raising conservation awareness and participating in research projects in collaboration with different research entities, and universities. As part of the continuous improvement process, an Animal Welfare Program is being carried out in collaboration with ZAWEC (the Zoo Animal Welfare Education Center)

OBJECTIVES

- 1. Promote the protection of the environment, biodiversity, and the conservation of natural heritage.
- 2. Promote knowledge of the different animal species, the different ecosystems and their conservation, as well as the conservation and protection of threatened or endangered species.
- 3. Achieve high standards of animal welfare by providing environments that focus on animal's physical and behavioral needs.
